“ Rest well, Sweet Prince. The other side gained an amazing spirit. You'll be deeply missed.

"Peace, my heart, let the time for the parting be sweet.
Let it not be a death but completeness.
Let love melt into memory and pain into songs.
Let the flight through the sky end in the folding of the wings over the nest.
Let the last touch of your hands be gentle like the flower of the night.
Stand still, O Beautiful End, for a moment, and say your last words in silence.
I bow to you and hold up my lamp to light you on your way."

~ Rabindranath Tagore

With all my love,

“ I still remember running around with you and Marlon when we were tiny. My visits to Denver were always adventurous thanks to you. I'm sorry that we didn't keep in touch as we got older. I feel the loss none the less. RIP

“ My precious nephew. All I have are good memories of you from the time you were born until the time you passed. Watching you when you were a baby, was so easy, because you were always so happy. I never loved a child the way I loved you until I had your cousin Sonia. I'm going to miss your hugs and your, I love you, auntie. RIP hito, you are now free of pain!

“ You were a love of my life, my best friend and love light for all. Your ability to touch hearts, wherever you roamed, was unparalleled. Your smile was like the shimmer of fresh snow on the summit of a majestic peak and your heart was as vast as the sea of stars. You touched hearts and warmed souls wherever you invested time and energy, you created incredible design concepts with precision from the heart and contributed to those in need without hesitation. There are no words for the impact this loss on Earth has created or the gain to the heavens that your death has provided. You have served your purpose my sweet, take your legecy of greatness wherever your soul soars and guide us with the sound of your sweet song. Dance on my precious friend, I'll catch you on the flip side of the moon.
