

Alyssas "Lyssy" Marie Trizio

September 24, 2003 - October 3, 2020

Alyssa "Lyssy" Marie Trizio passed away on October 3, 2020. She was born in Denver on September 24, 2003 to Vincent Sisneros and Jaclyn Trizio. She is preceded in death by her uncle Angel Morales; grandfather Jack Trizio; and great grandmother Nora Trizio. She is survived by her parents Vincent and Jaclyn; grandparents Charmaine Padilla and Tobias Morales; siblings Mariah Trizio, Dominique Trizio, and Monique Trizio. Lyssy loved Rap Music, Art, Makeup, cooking, and spending time with her grandmother. She loved spending time with her siblings. She wanted to be tattoo artist. She also loved to Dj wherever we went she wanted Aux rather thats in the car or just chilling at home she loved her music of all sorts. Lyssy would give you her shirt off her back the last dollar in her pocket she was so giving. She was especially fond of animals. She would bring home every stray if she could. Her family described her as very loving, funny, selfless, emotional, with a good heart. She was set in her ways and sometimes wore her heart on her sleeve. She was also very overprotective of those she loves. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her.
