“ In Memory of a great man, Benjamin Nolasco.

"I give you this one thought to keep -
I am with you still,
I do not sleep.
I am a thousand winds that blow,
I am the diamond glints on snow,
I am the sunlight on ripened grain,
I am the gentle autumn rain.
When you awaken in the morning's hush,
I am the sweet uplifting rush,
of quiet birds in circled flight.
I am the soft stars that shine at night.
Do not think of me as gone -
I am with you still in each new dawn."
- Traditional Native American Prayer

“ Prayers and condolences go to the Nolasco familia. I grew up considering them as part of my familia , I have many great memories. I was always welcomed in their home. When I walked through the door there was a feeling of Love. Mr. & Mrs. Nolasco were a pillar of the community. They were part of the catalyst for changes within the rights of the Hispanic community and the community as a whole. I Loved visiting with them and listening to the many life stories and experiences they shared. I especially Loved eating Mrs. Nolascos food which was always s great but it was also a time everyone was to together sharing the Love of a family. Mr.Nolasco was soft spoken and had a sense of humor. He would greet me anywhere he would see me. I loved hearing the stories he shared about the family and Mexico.Mr.& Mrs. Nolasco will never die because in our hearts they will always be alive. “ I love you grandpa! I remember stopping at your home anytime of day doors unlocked walking in saying hi grandpa hi grandma always welcomed. You would have a big smile, grandma would say hi my Leuchi and give me a kiss. Then you both would always offer food and drinks. No matter the time or day I knew grandpa and grandma Nolasco had my back. I'll cherish the time we had on earth, until we meet again grandpa! Love always your grandson Louie Nolasco!
