“ I miss you so much Bryce. Everyone says that its supposed to get easier but im still so mad. You were my like my big brother. Any time i needed help you were there. You were family. I hate seeing my sister so sad. Only you would know what do and how to make hannah feel better. I just needed to talk to you and i dont like posting on Facebook but im go to bed i miss you so much. I dont think ill ever forgive this cruel world for you being gone.

“ I was your boss for quite awhile, we became friends and yup we raced daily from the wash around b town praying we didn't get caught. I teased you constantly about keeping your car cleaner. Lol. We quickly became friends because you were such an incredible kid. You and my daughter got along like brother and sister. When my husband passed away you offered a great big hug, much needed laughs and helped me ring in the new year with new memories. You will never be forgotten.

“ I remember The very first time I met my nephew Bryce Lane Reedy I was 3 months pregnant with my daughter lisa-ann I moved to Portland Oregon to live with my sister and brother in law. He was my buddy we were inseparable. We did everything together slept, ate, took our baths together. When we laid down he would skoot under my belly and they would start kicking each other back and fourth. He was so upset with me when Lisa was born because he had to go sleep with his parents. I loved him so much and he loved me you could see the unconditional love between us. You will never be forgotten little buddy. You're auntie Becky will always remember you and keep your memories close to my heart. I know that you'll always be with all of us my angel Bryce Lane Reedy. May you be resting in peace. I love you
