“ My ex husband Steve Herrera and I were part of a close group of friends that included Chris. We had lots of laughs and good times. My ex got him the job when it was Westman in Denver, it changed hands and eventually became USFOODS. Chris was always trying to do good for his family. R.I.P. Chris, fly high.... my deepest condolences to Maria and the family.

“ I was one of the crew with Chris and Mike when I would have problems at my house Chris and his family would let me stay at their house as long as I needed Dad would make chili in the morning that would burn me up they always got a kick of how red and teary-eyed I got loved that family

“ I have known Chris for over 38 years as a coworker at USFoods and as a Business Agent for Teamsters Local 455. Chris was a man of integrity, honesty, a hard worker, and in todays world it is difficult to find all of those attributes. His laugh and sense of humor were infectious, he could take, as well as give the shots warehousemen can give each other. RIP Chris. God Bless the Family.

“ Chris believed in respect and dare you not show it for someone he loved. My favorite memory was when another associate was hitting on me in front of Chris and my now husband. He sent the guy packing when he told him he was going to mop the floor up with him. I loved that guy!

“ I, like my sister Erin, also had the pleasure of working with Chris my entire career at US Foods. Years ago I gave him the nickname peaches because whenever I'd ask him how he was doing he'd say "just peachy" When my dad passed away Chris would ask me every time he saw me how things were going and how my mom was doing. Chris was more than just a friend to me, he was a part of my family and I will miss him dearly

“ I had the pleasure of meeting Chris at US Foods when I was the receiving clerk. He always would tease me about being a Green Bay Packer fan. I'm deeply saddened to hear the news of his passing. He was such a nice man. My deepest sympathies and condolences to his wife, kids, and the rest of the family. Rest In Peace my friend

“ Chris was someone who always made me smile when I saw him. He had such a spark in his eyes, that let you know he was a little bit of a troublemaker, but still a good guy with a great sense of humor. I'm blessed to have known him all these years and sad to know he has left us. Prayers sent to his family who is undoubtedly missing him so much.
