“ I knew Delvon as a kid, I went to elementary school with him and his brother. I remember playing with him at the creek right next to Rude Rec center, I wish I had gotten to see him, I was thinking of him recently. God Bless his Son and Family, they will be in my prayers.

“ Whenever we saw Delvon, he was always smiling. We did not know Delvon well, we were putting up a railing on my Mom's porch next door to Delvon's. We had been working on it for several hours. Delvon came over and said "you have been working on this all day, you must be thirsty" and he gave us something to drink. We were so surprised. That is how Delvon was. A kind heart and great neighbor to my Mom and Dad.
