“ Im going to miss my uncle. We called him "putie" whenever anyone would approach him he would call us all putie I never new what it meant. He had the most embarrassing nickname for me "BLANCH" He would Blair it everytime i seen him. There are so many memeries i have with my tio and all so positive. He had a charm to him Where everyone was so drawn to. Everyone loved him. He was gone too soon. He will be missed...

“ I always enjoyed conversations with Leonard. He was a kind man who always had a story to share. He would often come and talk with my mother and he always had a special place in her heart Now they will have endless conversations. May you Rest In Peace Leonard
