

Jessika "Wesol" Marie Martinez

December 3, 1994 - December 11, 2019

Jessika "Wesol" Marie Martinez passed away on December 11, 2019 in Denver. She was born in Denver on December 3, 1994 to Christine Martinez. She is preceded in death by her mother listed above and sister Claudia Martinez. She is survived by her siblings Andrea Martinez, Danielle Flores-Nava, and David Martinez. Wesol loved make-up, music, dancing, singing, and dressing up. Her family described her as very loving, outgoing, and spectacular. Her favorite colors were the rainbow. Everyone is encouraged to wear bright colors the day of her service. She will be missed by all who knew and loved her.

A letter from Zania Martinez: I remember when we went to target to get us some Hot Cheetos and we ended up in the wrong aisle. We started to laugh our butts off. That was the best moment of my life with aunt Jessika. A letter from Serenity M.: Deary Aunty Jessika; there are so many things I want to say to you but I can't. I really miss you so much. You were such an amazing person. I'm really going to miss doing family activities with you. It hurts me knowing I'll never see you again; but I know you will always be with me. I love and miss you so very much. Love Serenity M.

“ Our cousins are our first everything. We know each others hearts & keep each others secrets. We talk the most shit to an about each other. we protect each other. We know each other before the world. I just can't believe this, not my cumbias. I will always see you jaming round my apartment trying to teach me the selena moves. I always seen the beauty in you an I'm sorry sorry I didn't spend more time with you just know life got me and I always stalked you lil cousin and when you made your choice to show your true you I was so proud to an so envious of how strong you had become. To see you be you was the greatest. I love you guys an. I am here if you want/need me.
RIP Jessica Marie Martinez kiss your momma for us.
