“ hey, sweet girl. i remeber in third grade when we first met and as soon as we started talking we were absolute bestfriends. i remeber when we used to do plays for our school and for one of them we dressed up as cowgirls and another one of them we put fake mustaches in and we were so so silly. and on my 10th bday part it was a spa day theme and we were all laughing and playing around because we all did face masks together and put cucumbers in our eyes and it was the absolute funniest thing ever. we used to have sleepovers a lot and we would eat junk food, dance around, and listen to megan trainor. we also hung out with your brother a lot and pretended to spy on them and play video games with them and it was so much fun. i wish you were still here you were so beautiful, talented, and kind to everyone around you. you were super super smart and such a great friend and me and all our friend group loves you very much. we all miss you dearly beautiful girl.

“ hey beautiful,
i miss you, and i wish we aren't as distance as we were. i miss your laugh and you jokes. i miss when we would stay up all night watching spongebob, seeing who would fall asleep first.. you were my only best friend at times, and i remember when it was just me and you doing something stupid. when we would make a lot of foo, to have our own movie night. even when we didn't see each other anymore, we would just text each other.
i never thought that one day, you will be gone. you were always there for me, to talk about our problems. i know that you had you had better friends than me to always be there for you when i wasn't, and im sorry at times i couldn't.
i love you jewelleena, and fly high love.

“ Hey gorgeous girl. I can't believe this is all real. You should be here. There's so much more you could have done growing up but most of us knew you did have a lot of fun. You're always the protector in the friend group. Always took the blame for everything or at least tried to.. you were so strong. I'll never forget the times we would listen to sad music to get our feels out of the way so we had a great time the rest of the day. It our little dance party's. Or the times we would always eat cereal late at night. You always were there for me when I was down and helped me with my family problems. Now you're an angel and every time I see a cloud I know it's you lol. Inside joke. But I'll never forget you or the memories we had and I know you will always be watching over us probably calling us gay or ugly like you always did. I miss you laugh and voice. I hope you are having fun up in heaven. I love you -tristen

“ I loved being Jewelleena's third grade teacher at Fitzmorris. She was such a smart, kind, and incredibly sweet young girl. She was so eager to learn and be a part of all of our classroom activities. I remember how much she liked to write and create stories. She was a little star in our Reader's Theater classroom productions. Most of all, she was a genuine friend to everyone and made everyone feel welcome in her presence.

I was lucky to run into Jewelleena at Long Lake Park over the past few years. She would be at the fields watching her brother play football. I would be there watching my son play football, too. She would run up to me for a quick hug and hello, then dash off back to continue watching her brother play. Last spring, her brother Josiah and my son Nick played on the same team together, the Pitbulls. I looked forward to seeing her at the games. I would always smile at what a lovely young lady she had grown to be. I know how proud her parents were of her and how much she was loved by her entire family.

Jewelleena will forever be missed and loved. Heartfelt prayers for the entire Arellano family from the Hoskins family,

Kevin, Amy, Nick and Sam Hoskins

“ My baby cousin Jewelleena I miss you soo much. I can't believe this is happening. You're the baby in the family...I wish I could've talked to you or knew what you were thinking and going through. I was always here for you.

We share a lot of amazing memories. I remember when I lived down the street from you we were always together. You were always by my side at aunty Lori's house. We would stay up late on the weekends, watch movies. I remember me, you and Nevaeh would jump on aunty lori's bed as we blasted our favorite music or just layed there ate junk food, talked or acted like children being loud acting goofy, those are probably my favorite memories. When you started gymnastics you were so excited! You always showed me new tricks that you've learned and would try to teach me but I could never do it right so you would laugh, make fun of me but you didn't give up on teaching me.

You were such a sweet, kind hearted loving, goofy young women. I'm going to miss you so very much. My heart hurts for you and our family. Your mom, Dad and brothers miss you so much our whole family does. We love you! I love you sooo much my little Jewelleena I always will

“ I'm so so so sorry! I'm heartbroken for the family, for everyone that loved you. I just met you for the first time cousin and I saw that your dad loved you so much, just like my dad loved me. He was so proud of you. You're beautiful inside and out. I'll be praying for all of you. Just so you know the ocean is my safe place. People make fun of me all the time for not using plastic and cutting up plastic can holders. I can only imagine you near the ocean with my dad. I love you all.

“ Jewelleena, sweet girl, I am brokenhearted. I love being your coach, you were such a beautiful gymnast. When you came back I was so happy to give you a big hug and to see you back in the gym with your friends. If I could just go back and remind you how important it is to get up when you fall and keep trying.

I will always remember you running around with your friends at camp, sleepovers, practice—smiling, giggling, and doing aerial cartwheels whenever possible.

We will miss you.

Love, Adrie

“ I never thought I'd have to hear this news... when they came and told me who had passed I couldn't believe it. My heart shattered into a million pieces and all I could think about is all the times we talked and you told me all about your life... you were my favorite student at Fitz and I made sure you knew that many times. We would talk about makeup and all the new pallets you wanted, we always told each other how our makeup was “on fleek” . And when you got in trouble & got your pallets taken away I let you use mine you would show me your brothers songs on SoundCloud, you were so proud of him. We would listen to XXX and lil skies together, I miss you Jewelleena I told you I would always be there for you.. I wish you would have talked to me, I would have done anything to help you feel better. You always said how much you wanted me to be your sister and I told you I always wanted a sister too but only got a little brother 🙏 ♀.. everyone keeps saying you were so quiet but you always talked to me.. we had so many laughs & I always listened to you when you were sad or mad.. I still can't believe this happened....not you... You will forever be in my heart, love you Jewelleena
