“ Uncle Gilbert, your physical presence will be missed. The memories we have shared with you will be in our hearts forever. Auntie Connie misses you the most. rest in peace uncle

Rest in the face of God and heaven. . Thanks for visiting dad, Gilbert Atencio often for conversation. I Believe that we'll all dance with you again someday.

Solomon painted a picture of what it is like to grow old. He acknowledges the unfairness from a human prospective., yet he offers wisdom to help us deal with it from God's perspective .God calls us to remember him in the midst of difficulty, pain and loss.

For all the living there is hope,
For the dying they know not reward.
for their memory is not forgotten,
nevermore will they share memory under the sun.
Ecclesiastes 9

We all know that for those who love God all things work together for good,
for those who are called to his purpose.

Sincere condolences to The family , and friends of Gilbert

“ We, friends, Raymond & Pam Leyba send our sympathy to family of Gil for your loss and our loss of a wonderful friend. He was always so kind, generous and welcoming to invite and stay at his home every time we were visiting our Aunt Connie (his long time loving companion) in Monte Vista. We also felt the love for his companion's family and for his hometown. He enjoyed making his friends, family and companion happy with gatherings and going out dancing or going out to eat; playing bingo, going to the casinos and traveling. The very next day of his passing, I felt his presence when we went out for dinner at a Mexican restaurant (it was a happy feeling). He truly loved life and its adventures. We are saddened that we weren't able to visit him in his last months of life. He will surely be missed and remembered always. Our condolences and rest in peace "uncle Gil"Raymond & Pam Leyba
