“ You will be missed dearly Tiff, your in granny's hearts and she will be thinking of you every day. Grandma wanted me to write how much she will be missing you, especially when you say "Hello granny, what do you need granny, and good by granny after bringing the girls to see her. Now you have passed these words to your kids, they greet grandma by saying granny, so cute.
As for me (Uncle Ted), I would tell you a funny story and your laugh will be missed and you as a person the most, you're in my heart. The story about Austin Powers in the elevator is the best, we must have laughed for a good half hour straight.
I had the honor of seeing you at the hospital after birth, kissing you when your were a baby, even if you had a spaghetti face! Having the arguments that families have and making up over donuts or dinners.
Granny loves you, I love you. Grandpa will help you out in heaven, show your wings Tiff and fly.

“ I'm going to miss you, Tiff! My heart aches deeply. You were such a wonderful mom. I appreciate the support and love you gave me last time we spoke. Love and light to you always. I'll be praying for the girls and your family. May they find strength during this difficult time. Rest easy, beautiful.

“ I'll never forget you aunt Tiff. The way I knew when I opened that garage door you would be there with your sweet "Hey Babe" The way you would sit on your bed and do your eyebrows and makeup. How you would make fun of me when I would get scared walking in on you watching scary movies. Even when grandpa would get mad about all the pickles you had in the refrigerator. Or the sound of you walking in the house. In the moment you never truly understand how the small things will one day mean so much. I love you and I've always loved you.
