“ I will always remember Bill, my father in law, as one of the kindest, funniest, and most generous men I've known. He welcomed me into the family with open arms, and always let me know how much the Broncos sucked, and how great the Chiefs are. He's definitely cheering them on from up above louder than any other fan, even his son, Bill Jr. HUUURRRRAHHH!!

“ My Uncle Bill did not care how or what anyone wanted to be in life. All he wanted was to be around the ones who wanted to be around him. I will forever miss him and his constant harassment for me being a part of the beloved Raider Nation. What im getting at is that he was unconditional. No matter how abrasive he came off, love was his main point. I will always have you in my heart, and tell Grandma, Uncle Roy, and Uncle Harold I miss em.

“ Dad I can't believe I'm writing this. From the time I was a little girl you were my Hero, I looked up to you. You were daddy, so strong , so handsome, you and mom were perfect to me. As I grew up you always seemed to know me pretty damn good, you always knew when something was bothering me but waited until I came to you for advise. You were always there for me. I'll miss watching Notre Dame beat Michigan With you, watching the KC CHIEFS rule the AFC West. Those midnight phone calls saying I love you KUURAAW!!

I will love and miss you from here to eternity. 😞

Rest in peace Daddy 💕

Beija and I love you always her poppa KUURAAW ❤️💛❤️💛
